

*My Sandhya, like a starlit sky,
Your beauty fills my eyes,
Your laughter, music to my soul,
A warmth that makes me whole.
Our love, a whispered melody,
Through seasons, calm and wild,
Your hand in mine, a safe embrace,
A love that time won't erase.
Each day with you, a treasure found,
In every smile, you're heaven-bound,
This Valentine's, my heart knows true,
My love for you will always renew.*
